

Donor Privacy Policy

The Cancer Support Community (CSC) respects the privacy of its donors' personal information. We take all steps to protect personal information and comply with all legal requirements protecting privacy.

Personal information collected from donors is used to respond to donor inquiries, process requests for information, issue receipts and acknowledgments, determine who is to receive future solicitations, and to inform donors of new programs and services at the Cancer Support Community. At no time is CSC's donor database sold, exchanged, lent or published.

At any time, if a donor does not wish to be contacted for future solicitations, or wishes to be deleted from any CSC list or database, he or she should please:

- email us at help@cancersupportcommunity.org,
- call us at 202.659.9709,
- or write us at 1050 17th Street NW, Suite 500, Washington, DC 20036.

If a donor has any questions about this privacy policy or the information we collect, please contact the Chief Operating Officer.